

Family Matters is seeking volunteers in all counties of the state to act as Educational Surrogate Parents at IEP meetings for students with disabilities who are children in care of the state or who do not have a parent who can legally represent them at special education meetings.

Interested volunteers must complete a six-hour training. If you are interested but cannot attend any of the training options below, call our office to be notified of future training events at other locations.

You must register for these trainings by calling our office: 866-436-7842, x3516.
